Dear First Grade families,

It was another great week together in First Grade! We loved making our "Story Element" kites and also our "Sink or Float" experiment. The kids had a blast!

I hope to see you all on Thursday, September 22nd for our mandatory parent night. We will be cooking "Apple Spice Quesadillas" in honor of the new season for all of our parents to enjoy! Our topic of discussion will be the reading curriculum and the expectations for First Grade. Please reach out if you are unable to attend.

Don't forget to dress up for picture day next week!

Sincerely,
Ms. Martinez ☺
