Welcome Back!

Welcome back, families! We're thrilled to have you rejoin us for another exciting school year. As we gear up for the upcoming term, we've been diligently reviewing schedules, rules, and expectations to ensure a smooth and productive learning experience for all our students. Here's to a wonderful journey of growth and achievement together!

Planners

Parents, engage in your child's academic journey by asking them about their new planners! Discover how they're organizing their schedules, setting goals, and managing their time. By showing interest in their planning process, you can support their learning and help them develop valuable organizational skills for the future.

Advanced Academics

Picture this: your sprightly offspring, now embarking on a voyage they call "Advanced Academics." It's like a timequake of the mind, where they're the architects of their own intellectual rollercoaster. Go ahead, inquire about their cosmic explorations – those mind-bending topics they're unraveling like a literary striptease. After all, life's a grand stage, and they're the quirky protagonists of their own scholarly drama.
